April 30, 2020

Dear Students:

In response to the funding of the 2020 CARES legislation in the federal stimulus package, I am pleased to share with you that Dakota Wesleyan University received an allocation of $321,000 to be distributed to students for expenses related to the change in delivery format precipitated by the COVID-19 crisis.

In accordance with the agreement between Dakota Wesleyan University and the US Department of Education these emergency distributions are to be used to offset student expenses related to housing disruption, food, course materials, healthcare, technology, or child-care expenses.

Further, the guidance from the US Department of Education states that students who receive these distributions need to be Title IV eligible. Priority will be given to those students who demonstrate the highest levels of financial need as determined by the 2019-2020 FASFA.

You are receiving this letter because our records indicate you meet the criteria established by the university for the distribution of additional emergency grant funds. DWU is pleased to distribute these funds to support you during this difficult time. Please proceed to the link listed below and to select your payment preference by May 8, 2020. Should you have any questions regarding these funds, please contact Mary Alexander, Financial Aid Director, at 605-995-2663.

Sincerely,
