

Workshops Available

- Perspective Drawing
(1 point through 6 point available)
- Hand-built Ceramics
- Wheel Throwing
- Raku Firing
- The Basics of Portraiture
- Basic Printmaking
(Collographs, silk screens, linoleum cuts)
- How to Build a Portfolio
- The National Enquirer
(An alternate approach to art appreciation)
- Basic Drawing Techniques
- Basic Pastel Painting

Workshops can be held at your high school or on the Dakota Wesleyan University campus.

DWU offers art workshops
for high schools

Cherie Ramsdell

DWU Assistant Professor of Art

is offering her art expertise to schools!

Ramsdell is a 16-year veteran of arts education in South Dakota public schools. She also designs the World's Only Corn Palace murals, owns and operates her own pottery business, and designs and maintains two large nonprofit organization Web sites. Her teaching experience ranges from kindergarten through postsecondary. She is a professional production artist, as well as a designer. See more of her work at www.dakotabones.com.

Although there is NO CHARGE for instructional time, travel expenses and the cost of art materials must be covered by the sponsoring high school or class. (Example: $5/pot for a Raku fire)

To schedule an art workshop, contact Cherie Ramsdell at 605-995-2941 or electronically at chramsde@dwu.edu.

DAKOTA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

ART DEPARTMENT

1200 W. University Ave., Mitchell, SD 57301 • 605-995-2941 • chramsde@dwu.edu

Learning, leadership, faith and service