

Leadership Accelerator

Invest your time and training dollars wisely.

When you promote your best staff to supervisory roles, they already have demonstrated that they possess the technical skills needed to be successful. The Kelley Center for Entrepreneurship can help them develop the leadership skills that will make their transition to that next level effective and efficient. Our Leadership Accelerator program is geared for new managers, as well as those with years of experience in leadership. Enrollment is limited to 10 participants per session.

Kelley Center for Entrepreneurship
Practical. Relevant. Applied.

Toshiba's Leadership Tells It Like It Is.

Transformational Learning: Participants reported a significant increase in their leadership competencies, and they attributed this growth to the program's dynamic and interactive approach.

Enhanced Team Dynamics: The participants in our training exhibited improved communication, collaboration and conflict resolution within their groups, resulting in increased productivity and innovation.

Tangible Impact: The application of newly acquired skills led to measurable improvements in Toshiba's operational efficiency and employee satisfaction.
